

Valley Beit Midrash

“And you shall speak of them...” – “וְדַבַּרְתֶּם בָּם” (Deut. 6:7)

Join us for a series of panel discussions in preparation for the High Holy days

September 10th: Does God Care?

We are told that God observes us for an entire year and judges us based on our actions. Is God really watching?

Panel: Rabbi Mari Chernow (Temple Chai), Rabbi Yonah Gross (Young Israel of Phoenix), Rabbi Darren Kleinberg (KiDMA).

September 17th: Evolving Jewish rituals.

Observances for the High Holy Days have changed over the centuries. Who should decide what is outdated and what should stick?

Panel: Rabbi Mari Chernow (Temple Chai), Rabbi Elon Sunshine (Har Zion Congregation), Rabbi Darren Kleinberg (KiDMA)

September 24th: Jew and Gentile.

Is our primary responsibility as Jews to the Jewish people or should we care for our fellow human beings without distinction?

Panel: Rabbi Mari Chernow (Temple Chai), Rabbi Yonah Gross (Young Israel of Phoenix), Rabbi Darren Kleinberg (KiDMA)

Time: All sessions, 7:00pm – 9:00pm.

Location: Temple Chai 4645 E. Marilyn Road, Phoenix, AZ 85032

Cost: $18 per session, $50 for the series (checks payable to Temple Chai) – scholarships available.

For more information or to register, please contact Joan Brodsky at jbrodsky@templechai.com, (602) 971 1234.

VBM: Your Home in the Valley for Community Learning.

Valley Beit Midrash is presented by Temple Chai and KiDMA – The Southwest Community