

Valley Beit Midrash

“And you shall speak of them...” – “וְדַבַּרְתָּ בָּם” (Deut. 6:7)

with

Rabbi Darren Kleinberg

The Valley Beit Midrash is a community-wide learning opportunity for adults from all walks of life.

- Learning new things.
- Reflecting on old things.
- Transformation through both.

The Origins of Modern Judaism

Oct. 29th	Enlightenment and Emancipation	Jan. 7th	American Judaism	Mar. 18th	Modern Orthodoxy
Nov. 5th	The Haskala	Jan. 21st	American Reform Judaism	Apr. 1st	Renewal Judaism
Nov. 19th	The beginnings of Reform Judaism	Feb. 4th	Conservative Judaism	Apr. 22nd	Case study: Synagogue seating
Dec. 3rd	Orthodox reactions to Reform	Feb. 18th	Guest Speaker: TBA	May 6th	Case study: Women rabbis
Dec. 17th	Positive Historical Judaism	Mar. 4th	Reconstructionist Judaism	May 20th	Case study: Patrilineal descent

All dates are Wednesday evenings beginning October 29th

Time: All sessions, 7:00pm – 9:00pm.

Location: Temple Chai – 4645 E. Marilyn Road, Phoenix, AZ 85032

Cost: $180 for all 15 sessions (checks payable to Temple Chai) – scholarships available.

Pre-Registration by phone or e-mail, or register during the program.

For more information or to register, please contact Joan Brodsky at jbrodsky@templechai.com, 602-971-1234.

VBM: Your Home in the Valley for Community Learning.

Valley Beit Midrash is presented by
Temple Chai and KiDMa – The Southwest Community